

Care for animals

“give careful attention to your herds”

Proverbs 27:23

Proverbs 12:10

- Righteous: as steward
 - How to care for God's property
 - 'very good' needs good care:
 - not destroying God's property
 - no unnecessary beating or torture
- Animals created 'according to their own kind'
 - no machines but living creatures

Proverbs 12:10

- Nature is often cruel:
 - whole creation suffers (Romans 8:20,22):
 - also animals: need our care (even chickens and dogs!)
- The needs of his animals:
 - food
 - health
 - safety
 - comfort

- Blessing:
 - flourishing animals > good production
(Proverbs 27:27)

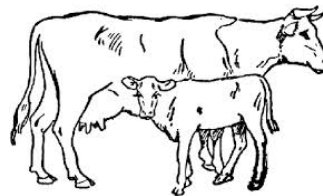

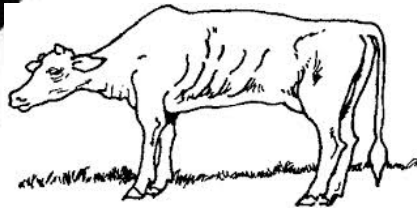

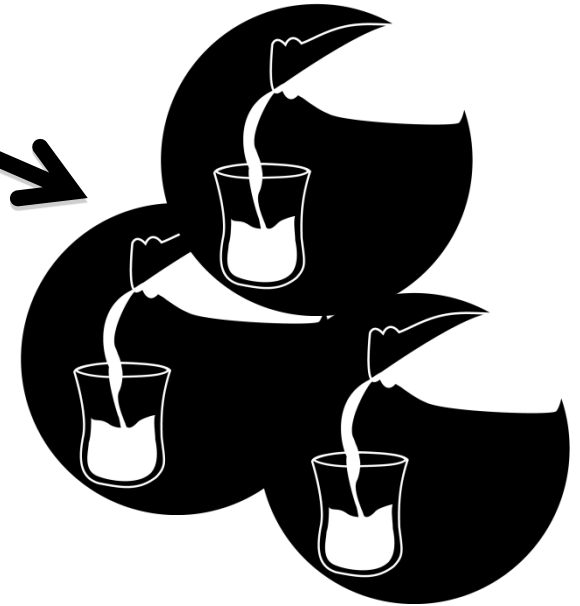

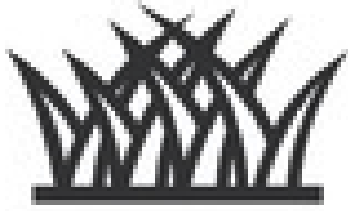

Needs of his animals

- Food
- Health
- Safety
- Comfort

Planning - Prevention

Why is it good?

Prevention

Safety and comfort

- Blessing:
 - flourishing animals > good production
(Proverbs 27:27)

